IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Wesley M. Franklin, who was taken away from us four years ago, April 2, 1952. Four years of grief and sorrow we have borne since you left us. Life has been a burden to bear without you.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell year is shed.

Memories are treasures no one steals,
Death leaves a heartache none can heal.
Some have forgotten you, now that you are gone,
But we shall remember no matter how long.

We saw you slowly leave us
As helplessly stood by,
And drained the cup of bitter grief
The day we saw you die.

If I had all this world to give,
I'd give it yes, and more
To hear your voice and see
Your smile and greet you at the door.

Keep him Jesus in thy keeping till
We reach the other shore,
Then, Oh Master, let us have him
And love him as we did before.

—Sadly missed by Mother and Daddy, Sisters and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my father, Benjamin M. Ferguson, who died April 9, 1951.

God called you home, it was his will,
But in our hearts we love you still.
Your memory is as dear today,
As in the hour you passed away.

Though your smiles have gone forever,
And your hands we cannot touch,
We will never lose sweet memories
of the daddy we loved so much.

It is lonesome here without you,
And sad and weary the way.
Life has not been the same to us,
Since you were called away.

But some day, some time our eyes shall see
Your face we loved so well.
Some day we'll clasp your loving hand,
And never say farewell.
(1tc) Daughter, Ethel.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, who departed this life eight years ago today, April 7, 1948.

Eight years ago today you left us,
So sad was that day.
God took you in his loving arms,
And then turned out the light.
How we miss your sweet smiling face,
None on earth can take your place.
It seems but yesterday when we heard you call.
Help us to wait, dear Jesus,
Till we meet our darling mother,
On that happy golden shore.

$100,000 BLAZE RAZES GRINELS MOTOR COMPANY

Thursday's fire at its peak. Photo by Shearer Robertson

One of the most costly fires in the history of Appomattox destroyed the plant of Grinels Motor Co. on Route 460 here last Thursday evening. With a loss estimated at up to $100,000, the blaze broke out in the body shop of the building, and in a few moments had enveloped the entire property.

Destroyed were the showrooms of the company, offices, garage, body shop, washing and lubrication racks and the parts quarters.

Only a favorable wind, and the gallant efforts of the Appomattox and Pamplin volunteer fire departments, saved nearby properties. The burning embers showered on nearby areas, but a shift in the wind could have set off additional costly fires.

Grinels Motor Co. was back in business early Friday morning, and temporarily is occupying the former Sinclair Service Station quarters on Route 460, almost directly across from the burned location.

No definite plans have been announced for rebuilding. Mr. Grinels has given priority to resuming essential services and has received remarkable cooperation from his staff in maintaining services. And the sales and office staff has been exceedingly active all week.

Explosions of paint cans and of other combustibles sent flames skyrocketing. A very large crowd of spectators gathered at the scene, and State Police blocked traffic on Route 460 until all danger had passed.

Appomattox Fire Chief W. E. Hancock and Assistant Chief, Carl Wooldridge led the local firemen in one of their top performances, and several firemen received minor injuries. Pete Doss was overcome by the smoke and Herman Carter was knocked down by a stream from a hoseline.

The Pamplin firemen rendered a valuable service, and a Lynchburg fire unit was dispatched to Appomattox.

Mr. Grinels was in Phenix when the fire broke out. He has worked tirelessly since the fire to reestablish service to the public, and the citizens of the area trust that his firm will receive full cooperation in recovering from the loss.

National Park Double Event Here This Week

Not only was Monday, April 9, the 91st anniversary of the signing of peace ending the War Between the States in a meeting of Generals R. E. Lee and U. S. Grant, at Appomattox, Va., but Appomattox had another anniversary on Tuesday, April 10. That date was the 16th anniversary of the creation of the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.

"Establishment Day" was observed on this occasion by the staff and by visitors to the National Park Service facilities here.

Legislation authorizing the Park was passed by Congress and approved in 1935. Land needed for the Park was acquired over a five-year period and on April 10, 1940, Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, as authorized by the Act of Congress, proclaimed establishment of the Park.

On April 11, 1940, H. A. Gurney was transferred from Fredericksburg National Military Park as Acting Superintendent for the newly established area here.

A feature of the anniversaries of this week was the coming of many bus loads of school pupils to visit the McLean House and other attractions in the Park area.

Blue Hornets Down Amherst By 15-2 Score

The Appomattox Blue Hornets won their second game of the season over Amherst High School in a game played at the high school field. This was the second win of the season for the Blue Hornets without a defeat. Garland Doss scattered five hits in going the distance and winning his first game of the season. The team showed power at the plate again in this game and the defense didn't show up as well as the first game. Errors lead to the first two runs scored by Amherst.

The hitting was done by the following players: Tommie O'Brien a double and two singles; Alton Smith had two triples; Dan Coleman a double and single; Terrell Martin a triple; Ronald Coleman a single Bradley Babcock a single; C. D. O'Brien a single and Garland Doss a single.

The Blue Hornets will travel to Brookville on Friday to play a District Four league game and will play here on Tuesday when they meet a strong Dan River team in another District Four league game.

April 16-27 Is Clean-Up Week In Appomattox

The Appomattox Garden Club has designated the last two weeks in April as Clean-Up Weeks for the Town and County of Appomattox this spring. The cooperation of each individual is requested in an effort to beautify the county, by cleaning individual property and premises, as well as refraining from throwing trash on the highways and streets.

Many tourists have already begun to visit Appomattox for this season, and will continue to do so all during the year, the volume increasing with warmer weather. It should be a matter of civic pride to have the town and county appearing at their best at all times.

The Garden Club suggests the slogan: "If you are proud of Appomattox, make Appomattox proud of you."
